IN-TEXT CITATIONS

Place in-text citations at the end of sentences in your paper; include author & pages (when available).

In-Text Citation When Paraphrasing
- According to one researcher, students learn best when they take notes (Gomez 176-80).
- In her research, Gomez found that students learn best when they take notes (176-80).

In-Text Citation When Quoting
- According to Gomez, “college students learn best when they are note taking” (179).
- One scholar stated that “college students learn best when they are note taking” (Gomez 179).

In-Text Citation for Sources with No Author
Give entire title - as listed in your Works Cited - in the body of your paper or abbreviate title in parentheses:
- According to “What the World Needs Now” more kittens would make humans significantly happier (179).
- Kittens make humans significantly happier (“What” 179).

In-Text Citation for Sources with 3+ authors
List et al. after first author: (Cox et al. 156).
A Works Cited list is the final page of a research paper and should be alphabetized and double-spaced. All citations longer than one line should have a .5 inch hanging indent:
